

Command Center Glossary

Item	Definition	Category
Robot	A robot defines either Pepper or NAO	Robot
Group of robot	A group of robots defines a set of robots. A robot cannot belong to several groups at the same time. A group can only be composed of one type of robot (Pepper or NAO)	Robot
Serial Number	The serial number is the unique ID (UUID) of the robot. It defines the robot in all SBR systems.	Robot
Mission	A mission is an application or a group of applications. This is the content you can deploy on robots	Mission
Dependency	Dependencies are missions / applications that you can associate to a mission. Thus, when the mission is deployed on robots, the dependencies are deployed at the same time.	Mission
Cms-mission	A cms mission is based on an application which allow the end-user to customize himself the content at any time.	Mission
Non cms-mission	A non cms mission is based on an application which cannot be customized by the end-user	Mission
Task	A task is the instance of a cms-mission that was created by an end-user.	Mission
Naoqi mission	A NAOqi mission is based on a pkg	Mission
Android mission	An android mission is based on an apk	Mission

Item	Definition	Category
Commercial mission	A commercial mission defines a mission without considering the versions of the mission	Mission
Paying mission	A paying mission is a mission that cannot be downloaded for free. A licence is required to be able to get it.	Mission
Technical mission	A technical mission will be visible on the Store only by SBR users and developers	Mission
Tag	A tag can be associated to a mission in order to filter missions on the Store	Mission
Contributor	A contributor is a user added as Major or Minor on a mission. He will have special rights on the mission. Major contributor: Has the exact same rights the owner. He can : - Upload new versions - Edit the mission's details - Submit the mission to QA - Release the mission on the Store - Distribute and revoke licences to other CC companies The Minor contributor can: - Upload new versions - Edit the mission's details	Mission
Licence distribution	Licences can be distributed and revoked by developers to end-users so that they can deploy it on their own robots.	Mission
Public release	Release publicly a mission will display the mission on the Store. If the mission is a paying mission, users will not be able to download it. If it is a non-paying mission, all users will be able to download it.	Mission